- (5) a limited liability company;
 - (6) an employer that provides on-the-job training under the federal School to Work Opportunities Act (20 U.S.C. 6101 et seq.) to the extent set forth in IC 22-3-2-2.5(a); or
 - (7) a corporation or its receiver or trustee;
- that uses the services of another person for pay.

"Essential employee" means an employee:

- (1) who the employer has determined to be essential to the operation of the employer's daily enterprise; and
- (2) without whom the employer is likely to suffer economic injury as a result of the absence of the essential employee.

"Nominal compensation" means annual compensation of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

"Public servant" has the meaning set forth in IC 35-41-1-24.

"Responsible party" has the meaning set forth in IC 13-11-2-191(d).

"Volunteer fire department" means a department or association organized for the purpose of answering fire alarms, extinguishing fires, and providing other emergency services, the majority of members of which receive no compensation or nominal compensation for their services.

"Volunteer firefighter" means a firefighter:

- (1) who, as a result of a written application, has been elected or appointed to membership in a volunteer fire department;
- (2) who has executed a pledge to faithfully perform, with or without nominal compensation, the work related duties assigned and orders given to the firefighter by the chief of the volunteer fire department or an officer of the volunteer fire department, including orders or duties involving education and training as prescribed by the volunteer fire department or the state; and
- (3) whose name has been entered on a roster of volunteer firefighters that is kept by the volunteer fire department and that has been approved by the proper officers of the unit.

"Volunteer member" means a member of a volunteer emergency medical services association connected with a unit as set forth in IC 16-31-5-1(6).

SECTION 3. IC 36-8-12-10.5 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 10.5. (a) This section does not apply to an employee of the state subject to IC 4-15-10-7.

(b) This section applies to an employee of a political subdivision who:

- (1) is a volunteer firefighter or volunteer member; and
- (2) has notified the employee's employer in writing that the employee is a volunteer firefighter or volunteer member.

(c) The political subdivision employer may not discipline an employee:

- (1) for being absent from employment by reason of responding to a fire or emergency call that was received before the time that the employee was to report to employment; or
- (2) for leaving the employee's duty station to respond to a fire or an emergency call if the employee has secured authorization from the employee's supervisor to leave the duty station in response to a fire or an emergency call received after the employee has reported to work.

(d) The political subdivision employer may require an employee who has been absent from employment as set forth in subsection (c)(1) or (c)(2) to present a written statement from the fire chief or other officer in charge of the volunteer fire department, or officer in charge of the volunteer emergency medical services association, at the time of the absence indicating that the employee was engaged in emergency firefighting or emergency activity at the time of the absence.

(e) An employee who is disciplined by the employer in violation of subsection (c) may bring a civil action against the employer in the county of employment. In the action, the employee may seek the following:

- (1) Payment of back wages.
- (2) Reinstatement to the employee's former position.
- (3) Fringe benefits wrongly denied or withdrawn.
- (4) Seniority rights wrongly denied or withdrawn.

An action brought under this subsection must be filed within one (1) year after the date of the disciplinary action.

(f) A public servant who permits or authorizes an employee of a political subdivision under the supervision of the public servant to be absent from employment as set forth in subsection (c) is not considered to have committed a violation of IC 35-44-2-4(b).

SECTION 4. IC 36-8-12-10.7 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 10.7. (a) This section applies to an employee of a private employer who:

- (1) is a volunteer firefighter or volunteer member; and
- (2) has notified the employee's employer in writing that the employee is a volunteer firefighter or volunteer member.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), the employer may not discipline an employee:

- (1) for being absent from employment by reason of responding to a fire or emergency call that was received before the time that the employee was to report to employment; or

(2) for leaving the employee's duty station to respond to a fire or emergency call if the employee has secured authorization from the employee's supervisor to leave the duty station in response to a fire or an emergency call received after the employee has reported to work.

(c) After the employer has received the notice required under subsection (a)(2), the employer may reject the notification from the employee on the grounds that the employee is an essential employee to the employer. If the employer has rejected the notification of the employee:

(1) subsection (b) does not apply to the employee; and

(2) the employee must promptly notify the:

(A) fire chief or other officer in charge of the volunteer fire department; or

(B) the officer in charge of the volunteer emergency medical services association; of the rejection of the notice of the employee who is a volunteer firefighter or a volunteer member.

(d) The employer may require an employee who has been absent from employment as set forth in subsection (b) to present a written statement from the fire chief or other officer in charge of the volunteer fire department, or officer in charge of the emergency medical services association, at the time of the absence indicating that the employee was engaged in emergency firefighting or emergency activity at the time of the absence.

SECTION 5. IC 36-8-12-10.9 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 10.9. (a) The employer may require an employee who will be absent from employment as set forth in:

(1) section 10.5(c)(1); or

(2) section 10.7(b)(1);

of this chapter to notify the employer before the scheduled start time for the absence from employment to be excused by the employer.

(b) The employer is not required to pay salary or wages to an employee who has been absent from employment as set forth in section 10.5(c) or 10.7(b) of this chapter for the time away from the employee's duty station. The employee may seek remuneration for
